

Nissan Institute Seminar in Japanese Studies Hilary Term 2015

Thursdays 2.00 - 3.30 p.m. in the Pavilion Room, Gateway Building,
St. Antony's College, Oxford

Convenors: Dr Ekaterina Hertog and Professor Takehiko Kariya

- | | |
|--|---|
| Thursday
22nd January | Dr Hiro R Watanabe, University of Sheffield
Labour market deregulation in Japan: its causes and consequences |
| Thursday
29th January | Professor Yuichiro Shimizu, Keio University
How modern Japan fostered young elites? Education, Institution and Promotion |
| Thursday
5th February | Professor Midori Okabe, Sophia University
Is Japan a Closed Society of Immigration? - Issues on International Migration and Territoriality in Japan |
| Thursday
12th February | Dr Chris Harding, University of Edinburgh
Placing Japan's First Psychotherapists, 1930 - 1950 |
| Thursday
19th February | Dr Jonathan Service, Wadham College
The Greece of the East: Writing the History of Music in Meiji Japan |
| Thursday
26th February | Professor Wilhelm Vosse, International Christian University
Japan's New Security Cooperation in Counter-Piracy Missions |
| Friday
6th March | Professor Aaron S. Moore, Arizona State University
Engineering the Empire: "Comprehensive Development" in Japan's Colonial Borderlands |

Please note that this seminar will take place on Friday 6th March and start at 5.00 p.m. in the Pavilion Room.

- | | |
|---|--|
| Friday
13th March | Mr Tatsuya Mori, Film maker
Film on Aum Sinrikyo |
|---|--|

There will be a film showing of "A2" (on Aum Sinrikyo) from 2.30 - 4.30 p.m. with a short break, and then from 5.00 p.m. Mr Mori will give a talk about the film and his work.

Please note that this will take place on Friday 13th March and starts at 2.30 p.m. in the Nissan Institute Lecture Theatre followed by the usual seminar starting at 5.00 p.m.