

Japanese Linguistics (The History and Structure of Japanese) – 2017/2018

Bjarke Frellesvig, Professor of Japanese Linguistics, Faculty of Oriental Studies

Tuesdays 4.00 - 5.00 pm Michaelmas and Hilary Terms at the Oriental Institute

The primary objectives of this course are for students: (1) to get a comprehensive overview over the main features of and approaches to the study of the Japanese language; (2) to get a working knowledge of the relevant research tools and literature; and (3) to identify topics and subjects areas for independent research. The teaching for this course will take place in Michaelmas and Hilary Terms (under the titles Japanese Linguistics (MT) and The history of the Japanese language (HT)), with one lecture a week. Core readings will be assigned for each meeting.

Students will be invited to submit an essay on an assigned topic for assessment by the end of week 4 in either of the two terms in which the classes are taught. Details will be given during the first class of the term.

Examination will be by a three hour written exam in Trinity Term.

Lectures will address topics such as the following: phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, vocabulary and loanwords, dialects, writing.
